

HENGRAVE
HALL

Together is a beautiful place to be...

Exclusively yours...

We are delighted to introduce you to Hengrave Hall, providing the most romantic wedding venue imaginable. Nestled in 350 acres of picturesque East Anglian countryside. Intimate or grand, formal or casual, the choice of celebration is yours.

Come and discover the grandiose architecture that awaits, with sumptuous accommodation for you, your family and friends, the quaint country church, sweeping lawns and formal gardens.

Our award-winning Events team are on hand from the very first moment you walk through the front door to taking those all important steps down the aisle.

Exclusively yours for the day your dreams can come true.

With love,

The Hengrave Hall Team

Get ready in style

Our Queen Elizabeth Chamber is the perfect place to begin your journey!

This timeless suite has far reaching views across the formal gardens, and filled with luxurious furniture, which makes it the perfect place for you and your bridal party to start those all important preparations.

There's also a gorgeous wet room with luxurious thick cotton towels and robes.

So sit back, sip on a glass of champagne and let's get married!

The Blue Chamber is also available for pre ceremony preparations.

With a snooker table, wide screen TV and PlayStation. This is the perfect room to prepare, relax and enjoy in the lead up to your ceremony.

With double aspect windows; overlooking the main drive, you will be able to see your guests arrive and justly take your cue.

Let's get married

Nestled within the grounds, a stones throw away from the Main House. There lies the quaint medieval church of St John the Lateran, where dreams can come true and promises are made.

The Banqueting Hall, Library and Dining Room are all licensed for Civil ceremonies. So whether you're looking for an intimate occasion or a grand affair our ceremony rooms are suitable for all.

If it is your hearts desire is to have an outside ceremony, look no further than our beautiful outdoor ceremony space, which has stunning views over the lake.

Raise a glass

Guests at Hengrave Hall will experience only the best that Suffolk has to offer, the catering and hospitality has been carefully selected to reflect the unique qualities of our exclusive venue.

From canapés on the West Terrace to your three course wedding breakfast, there is an abundance of options to tailor your special day.

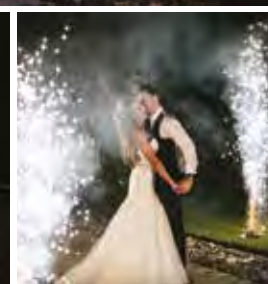

Time to party

Kick off your shoes and let your hair down... it's time to party!

Dance the night away in our stunning Banqueting Hall, whether your choices of music are a DJ or a live band.

As you take to the dancefloor for your first dance, there will be magical moments shared between you both.

The future beckons, the day is almost done—fireworks light up the night sky, to bring a perfect close to a perfect day.

So to bed

Hengrave Hall is proud to offer an exceptional selection of bedrooms. Each room is uniquely decorated, with comfy beds and crisp white linen.

Awakening to a hearty breakfast in the Walled Garden. Our chefs are there to provide you with the best that Suffolk can offer.

The rooms are exclusively reserved for you and your guests, which allows you to hand pick the bedrooms to suit each individual person.
